

Nine county schools recognized for achievements

Nine Hudson County schools were recently recognized as "2006 Just for the Kids - New Jersey Benchmark Schools" for high student achievement on the state's assessments.

The county Benchmark Schools include Jefferson in Union City, Number 1 and Number 3 in West New York, Horace Mann Number 6 Elementary School in Bayonne, Anna L. Klein Elementary School and Robert Waters Elementary School in Jersey City, North Bergen High School in North Bergen, and Weehawken High School in Weehawken.

The state Benchmark distinction is awarded based upon demographic information, enrollment, and state test scores over a three-year period.

Assessment results are annually posted at the "Just for the Kids - New Jersey" Web site at www.just4kids.org.
