World Class

Michael Langsner, a student at High School North, was recognized as a World Class Student by the Business Coalition for Educational Excellence (BCEE) and the New Jersey Chamber of Commerce. Langsner, a volunteer music instructor for the Small Miracles Foundation, gives weekly guitar lessons to a 10-year-old boy.

The celebration was held through a one-day forum and awards dinner. During the forum, students met with local business executives to learn about the realities of working in the business world. During the dinner celebration, students were presented with certificates and a gift card from Lowe's. For more information visit www.learndoeearn.org.
